David G. Brock is a partner in the Firm's Litigation practice group. Over the past four decades, Mr. Brock has practiced principally in the defense of tort and insurance-related litigation. He joined Jaeckle Fleischmann & Mugel, LLP in 1977 after five years as staff attorney at Liberty Mutual Insurance Company. Mr. Brock's practice has included broad experience in municipal liability, legal ethics and malpractice, as well as product liability and premises liability litigation. In the area of motor vehicle litigation, he has defended liability, product and no-fault cases for both insurance carriers and self-insureds, including public utility, transit and waste disposal companies. He is New York State counsel to an international heavy truck and road equipment manufacturer as well as a national waste disposal company. He also actively defends municipalities in various tort litigation, and counsels attorneys in professional liability, ethics and disciplinary matters. In addition, he is a certified Federal Court Mediator for the Western District of New York.

Mr. Brock received his BA from Union College and his JD from the State University of New York at Buffalo Law School.

Mr. Brock is admitted to practice in New York State, the U.S. District Court, Western District of New York and the 2nd Circuit Court of Appeals. He is a member of the Bar Association of Erie County, the American and New York State Bar Associations, the Defense Research Institute and International Association of Defense Counsel, where he serves on the Defense Counsel Journal Board of Editors.

Mr. Brock is a founding director of the Lower East Side Community Enrichment Center, a not-for-profit organization facilitating community and after-school programming. He has also served as Chair of the Board of Directors of Planned Parenthood of Western New York, and as a director of the Bar Association of Erie County, the Western New York Trial Lawyers Association and the National Conference for Community & Justice of Western New York. He is a member of the Eighth Judicial District Attorney Grievance Committee.
