Daniel P. Joyce concentrates his practice in legal services related to business, immigration and cross-border matters. He has extensive experience with U.S. immigration and cross-border matters, including business visas, family visas, green cards, naturalization and waivers. Mr. Joyce also handles legal aspects involved in business transactions for U.S. and Canadian transportation companies, including U.S. operating authority and other regulatory matters, business start-ups, and state and federal taxation. He also advises companies on the protection of proprietary information, trade names and trademarks.

Mr. Joyce holds a B.A. from the University of Notre Dame, an M.B.A. and J.D. from the State University of New York at Buffalo.

Mr. Joyce is admitted to practice in New York and Pennsylvania, U.S. District Courts, Eastern District of Pennsylvania and Western District of New York and the U.S. Tax Court.

He has been a member of the American Immigration Lawyers Association (AILA) since 1993 and currently serves as the Chairperson of AILA's Upstate New York Chapter.

Mr. Joyce frequently lectures on immigration law and cross-border issues and was a long-time adjunct faculty member at the University at Buffalo School of Management teaching business law courses. He has been a regularly featured columnist for Canadian trucking industry publications Truck News and Atlantic Trucking.
