Businesses dealing with financially troubled entities, or experiencing their own financial difficulties, require prompt and capable legal advice. Our Bankruptcy & Restructuring practice group has extensive experience representing all types of interests in complex bankruptcy and insolvency proceedings and in the related litigation that can arise in such proceedings.

OUR APPROACH

Jaeckle Fleischmann's bankruptcy and business reorganization team is comprised of litigation, corporate and business attorneys with broad experience in bankruptcy cases under Chapters 7, 11, 12 and 13 of the Bankruptcy Code. We routinely represent banks, lessors, secured and unsecured creditors, and businesses in complex bankruptcy litigation proceedings, workouts, reorganizations, and acquisitions and dispositions of troubled businesses. The bankruptcy group calls upon attorneys in other practice areas including Corporate, Real Estate, Tax, and Environmental, and assembles a team to efficiently address the intricacies of each particular matter.

This description of the Jaeckle Bankruptcy & Restructuring Practice Group practice group has been prepared by the Bankruptcy & Restructuring attorneys at Jaeckle Fleischmann & Mugel, LLP and is intended for general information purposes only and should not be considered legal advice. You are urged to contact an attorney concerning any specific questions you have relating to your own situation. 7.09 v2

Your Team

WILLIAM C. GROSSMANwgrossman@jaeckle.com; 716.843.3888SPECIAL COUNSEL

William C. Grossman serves as Special Counsel to the Firm's Litigation and Bankruptcy & Restructuring practice groups. He concentrates his practice in business and commercial litigation and insolvency issues. Mr. Grossman joined the Firm after a 20-year career at National Grid USA Service Co./Niagara Mohawk Power Corp., where he began his career managing defensive discovery operations for complex commercial litigation matters involving the construction of the Nine Mile Point Two Nuclear Station.
