Presenter:

The Excelsior Jobs Program Act

Raymond P. Reichert is a partner in Jaeckle Fleischmann & Mugel, LLP's Tax and Economic & Land Development practice groups. He has devoted substantially his entire career to the practice of tax law with a primary focus on partnership and LLC taxation, including syndication of low income housing tax credits and historic tax credits. He also represents publicly traded Real Estate Investment Trusts in equity financing and investment transactions utilizing limited partnerships and LLCs. His practice includes structuring real estate joint ventures and funds, economic development planning and closing complex multi-layered tax intensive transactions.

Mr. Reichert is a frequent lecturer at the State University of New York at Buffalo School of Law, where he has taught both basic federal income taxation and partnership tax courses. He has lectured on numerous occasions with regard to tax and economic development related subjects.

Mr. Reichert is admitted to practice law in New York State, U.S. Tax Court and U.S. District Court, Western District of New York. He currently serves as Co-Chair of the Tax Committee section of the Bar Association of Erie County and is a member of the Tax Committee for the New York State and American Bar Associations.

Jaeckle Fleischmann & Mugel, LLP has been certified by the New York State Continuing Legal Education Board as an Accredited Provider of continuing legal education in the State of New York for the period March 6, 2010 through March 5, 2013.
