The Presenter:

Charles D. Grieco is a partner in the Firm's Environmental and Economic & Land Development practice groups. He concentrates his practice on land use planning/environmental review as well as environmental litigation and environmental compliance issues. His experience in the environmental and land use areas includes counseling and representing private sector and public sector clients with respect to zoning and environmental review procedures under the State Environmental Quality Review Act and National Environmental Policy Act, as well as representing clients in cost recovery litigation in both federal and state courts. He currently serves as the Village Attorney for the Village of Williamsville and counsels the Village on all land use and zoning matters.

Admitted to practice in New York State, Mr. Grieco is past Chair of the Environmental Law Committee of the Bar Association of Erie County, and is a member of the New York State Bar Association. Mr. Grieco currently serves as Director of Partners for a Livable Western New York, a smart growth advocacy group, and is a member of The City of Buffalo Environmental Management Commission, where he regularly advises various city boards with respect to SEQRA and land use issues.

Jaeckle Fleischmann & Mugel, LLP has been certified by the New York State Continuing Legal Education Board as an Accredited Provider of continuing legal education in the State of New York for the period March 6, 2007 through March 5, 2010.

Upcoming Seminars:

The Continuing Legal Education (CLE) series will resume in 2010. Further schedule details will be provided at a later date.
