

NY GOVERNMENT REORGANIZATION AND CITIZEN EMPOWERMENT ACT: WHAT MUNICIPAL LEADERS NEED TO KNOW

The New York Government Reorganization and Citizen Empowerment Act became effective on March 21, 2010. The Act creates new Article 17-A of the General Municipal Law governing the consolidation and dissolution of most (but not all) forms of local government. The new law has raised at least as many questions as it has provided answers.

Join us to learn how this new law may impact your municipality.

EVENT SPEAKER:

Charles D. Grieco is a partner in Jaeckle's Environmental and Economic & Land Development practice groups. He concentrates his practice on municipal law, land use planning/environmental review as well as environmental litigation and environmental compliance issues. He currently serves as the Village Attorney for the Village of Williamsville and counsels the Village on all general municipal, land use and zoning matters. His experience in the environmental and land use areas includes counseling and representing private sector and public sector clients with respect to zoning and environmental review procedures under the State Environmental Quality Review Act and National Environmental Policy Act, as well as representing clients in cost recovery litigation in both federal and state courts.

Admitted to practice in New York State, Mr. Grieco is past Chair of the Environmental Law Committee of the Bar Association of Erie County, and is a member of the New York State Bar Association. Mr. Grieco currently serves as Director of Partners for a Livable Western New York, a smart growth advocacy group, and is a member of The City of Buffalo Environmental Management Commission, where he regularly advises various city boards with respect to SEQRA and land use issues.
